"The pacifist ideology that violence should never be used in any circumstance, is an accepted rational, so pacifist talk and talk and talk. Even when their enemy tells them, 'I don't want to talk to you, I want to destroy you,' the reaction from a pacifist is, 'Please, let's talk about the fact that you want to destroy me!'".

"Islam can not be separated from the terrorist it motivates because that's the connection that the terrorists themselves choose to make.

As far as Muhammad was concerned what is good for Muslims is not good for non-Muslims; and, what is bad for Muslims is good for non-Muslims.

As soon as Muhammad died his personal criminal enterprise became a co-op of internal war: every aspiring criminal had a chance to jockey for control and master the power vacuum the warlord's death left behind. Divisions formed and splintered into sub-divisions, and sectarian bloodletting started in earnest.

The internal infighting in Islam is played out in full most dramatically, in the Middle East. Shiite raid Sunni civilians, slaughter them like sheep, and toss their bodies like trash in the streets or the rivers. The Sunnis return the favor with just as much savagery.

Now all if us by now know that this is the way followers of Muhammad treat each other, and they plan to deal with non-Muslims far worse, when they have the chance?

Followers of Muhammad plan to do exactly what Muhammad did to those who would not submit to his will: The Muslim prophet beheaded all those who would not confess belief in him and commanded that the non-believers be viciously slaughtered so as to send a direct message to the survivors, submit or die.

Intolerance, hatred, and violence towards anyone a Muslims considers worthy of death is the beauty of the Quran and those who consider themselves true Muslims. For instance Shiites judge the Sunnis as traitors to Islam and Sunnis condemn the Shiites. Each sect deems the other worthy of death and hellfire.

So, who is right? Who are the true Muslim Believer's.

Allah Who is ~ Lucifer Inspires: the Shiite-Sunni bloodletting, in the region of peace along with genocide in Sudan's Darfur; Yemen, Somali; because where ever Islam goes intimidation, death and destruction follow.

Mullahs murder in the regions they call home and support mischief abroad; the cross-border attack on Israel by Lebanese Hizbollah; the incessant terrorist acts of Hamas, Jihad, and proclaimed Fatwa's of the Palestinians against Israel; the bombing of mosques in Pakistan and the retaliation against easy innocent civilian targets.

There is no place on the planet where followers of Muhammad's message reside that is safe from Islam's brand of peace.

Spain, France, Holland, England, Thailand, Indonesia, Russia, Denmark, 9/11, all mankind have been cursed by Muhammad's message.

Saudi Arabia, has been submerged in formaldehyde since Islam's inception.

Wherever Islam's Shurea Law goes, all forms of violence are elevated to noble acts.

The principals governing Muhammad's instructions on relationships with others is vital to Islam because in all genocidal activities to date, grooming killers to first dehumanize victims in their minds is an important prerequisite. The indoctrination in Quranic script, community publications and media supports the belief that Americans, Jews, Hindus, and other non-Muslims are not human beings in the same sense as Muslims, and can and should be slaughtered with impunity.

The concept of equality, is an idea that is unacceptable in Islam. For in all forms of Islamic thought and practice, the non-Muslim believer cannot be the equal of the Muslim. A basic principle of Islam holds that humanity is divided according to a strict hierarchy of worth. At the top of this hierarchy are free Muslim Arab males, supposed to be the cream of Islamic humanity. Below them, in descending order are Arab Muslim male slaves, Muslim women, Muslim female slaves, the males of the "People of the Book" Jews and Christians, and, then, the female of the 'People of the Book'. Finally, the rest of humanity comes in dead last; because Muhammad taught his army of followers they lack a soul they are regarded by Muhammad's followers as worthless having no rights whatsoever. This unfortunate final grouping includes Buddhists, Hindus, atheists, agnostics, and others. But before Jews and Christians celebrate escaping last-place in this uniquely Islamic popularity contest, the fine print should first be carefully studied. The final words reported from the mouth of the dying Prophet were a curse on them "Allah's damnation Which is ~ Lucifer's damnation be on the Jews and the Christians ..."

There are two Qur'anic verses in particular that condemn Muslims to live in religious, economic, intellectual, and civil poverty.

One says: 004.089 "If they turn back from Islam, becoming renegades, seize them and kill them wherever you find them." The other commands: 005.101 "Believers! Do not ask questions about things which if made plain and declared to you, may vex you, causing you trouble." 005.102 "A people before you did ask such questions, and on that account they lost their faith and became disbelievers." It's true; the Qur'an is so obviously fraudulent, anyone who questions it must die.

More to the point the first step in any process wherein an individual is trained to surrender personal will over to a cause is full immersion into the doctrine and philosophy demanding devotion, and separation from all competing realities. In keeping with this rule, the secret of Islamic group success lies in the effectiveness of Islamic schools worldwide. The secret is embodied in millions of poor and impressionable boys kept entirely ignorant of the world and, for that matter, largely ignorant of all but fundamental Islam. These schools manufacture young men who are the perfect Jihad machines. With support from governments, family, and cultural traditions, such schools continue to serve as Islam's primary method of indoctrination. The Qur'an is recited, memorized, and then recited again.

Considering the source material memorized, it is a simple, natural act for those so conditioned to step out of such schools, pick up a weapon, and start killing.

Repetition and consistency are the best teachers, of which Islamic home schooled students in America are now able to receive heavy doses along with reminders five times a day when called to bang their head on the floor. For Muhammad's believers, daily head banging is not a personal supplication where questions are asked or answers expected.

The spirit in Islam is unapproachable, unknowable, and above considering anything as insignificant as an individual's need or concern. All Islamic instruction is contained in the demonic book call the Quran, and the Hadith which is the example of Muhammad's life, it is the duty of every Muslim to accept the raining local Cleric's explanation of how unalterable revelations apply to their life issues today.

As such daily head banging represent a declaration of compliance rather than a supplication seeking help on a personal level. These devotionals, repeated five times a day, are designed to be chants that reinforce commitment to Islamic principals and aims.

Then there is the power of 'group-thinking' the public events. In group settings funerals, protests, Friday night sessions, the rapture of large gatherings raising arms and chanting 'Allah Akbar' have the same effect as the huge crowds in the early 1900's raising arms, clicking heals and proclaiming 'Heil Hitler!' The otherwise weak and powerless individual gains power, acceptance, and respect by surrendering self to the group, thus cloaking their weakness with the perception of power that comes from affiliation with a group drunk on a sense of superiority and a mandate to die for a lie.

If the trapped Muslim victims were to shed their yoke of ignorance, they would discover that the real reason those who indoctrinate them, control them, suppress them, fleece them, and abuse them want them deceived is that the actual message contained in the Quran is horrendous. It is more intolerant, racist, punitive, and violent than Hitler's Mein Kampf. The Quran inspires terrorism.

The demonic Quran is poorly written. There are countless meaningless words, foreign words, and missing words which is why translations differ significantly—everyone is guessing as to what Muhammad thought Allah Who is ~ Lucifer was trying to say.

The world's leading specialist in Arabic calligraphy and Qur'anic paleography, studying the oldest manuscripts, speaks with disdain about the willingness of Muhammad's followers and non-Muslims alike, to accept Islamic dogma. He says: "The Qur'an claims for itself that it is 'mubeen,' or clear, but if you just look at it, you will see that every fifth sentence or so simply doesn't make sense.

Muhammad's followers will tell you otherwise, but the fact is that a fifth of the Qur'an is just incomprehensible. This is what has always caused the Iman Cleric's anxiety regarding translation. If the Qur'an is not comprehensible, if it can't even be understood in Arabic, then it's not translatable into any language. That is why Imams have nothing else to say after lying about the interpretation of translations".

By reading the Qur'an in a language they actually understand, Muslims would find that there is no semblance of order in the central book of Islam. The Qur'an is a jumbled mess without context, chronology, or rational transitions. It is only by rearranging the Qur'an in the order it was revealed and infusing it with the context of the chronological Hadith narratives, that the book begins to make sense. But by so doing, it becomes obvious that the Qur'an was simply a reflection of Muhammad's demented character and of his misplaced ambition. The more you know, the more you will come to despise the fraud Muhammad perpetrated on his fellow Arabs and they on human kind. To know the Qur'an is to reject Islam.

Muhammad's message is that the earth, and all it contains belongs to Allah Who is ~ Lucifer (3:109). The only government that is acceptable to Allah Who is ~ Lucifer is Islam, which Muhammad by himself made (cf. 5:3).

As the followers of Muhammad, his believers are Allah's Who are ~ Lucifer's thieves on earth. With this mind set Muslims think they own the whole world as well as everything it contains.

This is the time, we have to identify the root of the problem and eradicate it. The root of Islamic terrorism is Islam. The proof of that is, the, Quran.

When you strip away Islam's mask of intimidation and deception, there is absolutely nothing there.

How else could this demonic "cult" keep so many brainwashed zombies in line if not for the ever-present death threat that is the Quran?

It is impossible to bring shame upon a rabid animal that has been programmed to have no soul. Your words, no matter how powerful and seething to a normal human, do not penetrate the blank stare of the lunatic Muslim. It would be easier for you to make your dog to feel guilty about eating the piece of steak you dropped at his feet.

Islam is directly responsible for nearly 95% of all the wars and terrorist acts today. And that doesn't include the terror they inflict on themselves in the 50 tyrannies they call home.

Islam is sent over a billion dollars a day. Cleric and King use it to tyrannize their communities to create a living hell for the citizens and to indoctrinate them so that they terrorize.

It is not about, Jews in Israel, or Orthodox Serbs in Kosovo, or Hindus in Kashmir, Buddhists in Thailand, or Catholics in Lebanon, Taoists in China, or Christians in Sudan and Nigeria, Liberia. It's not about 9:11, the bombing in UK, Spain, the little children in Russia, the bombing in Bali, the bombings world wide. It's not about a single terror attack. It's about Islam and all of us. Awake, it's about Islam.

What is stunning is that those so engaged believe in a man who told them Allah Who is ~ Lucifer sanctifies murder, slavery, lying, rape, arson, and thievery against other human beings.

The Qurian is specific in commanding the faithful Muslim to wage a war against non-

Muslims. They must be fought until survivors surrender and pay tribute as a sign of their humiliation. Receiving tribute from unbelievers in the name of Allah Who is ~ Lucifer is then the true purpose of Islam.

Islam is an extortion Scam wherein looting, murder and rape are not wicked acts attracting retribution, but, made the pinnacle of piety.

Few Westerners know that Islam's celebrations culminate in a rampage of mass self-flagellation. Mobs of fanatical adherents roam the streets, covered with blood from self-inflicted wounds, chanting, beating and cutting themselves with chains, swords, and whatever else can be used to inflict injury. Men and boys mutilate themselves. Parents mutilate their toddlers. Sane people in civilized societies should be electing politicians who are prepared to outlaw altogether this criminal enterprise. Without such action intimidation death and destruction will continue in every country.

Try to imagine what Muhammad's followers, given a chance, would do to you.

These festivities present an example of the senseless blood lust and flair for gratuitous violence inherent to Islam.

Traditionally, the participant's conclusion is a symbolic stampede.

From knowledge comes wisdom, from wisdom comes power, and from power comes safety. The only thing that springs from ignorance is error, weakness, and sometimes mortal, peril. Does our culture, obsessed with the promotion of senseless tolerance, render us incapable of drawing reasonable conclusions about Islam's core values and criminal design?

Islam has always been used as a tool of domination throughout its history. Mirza Malkam Khan, an Islamic revivalist/reformist of the 19th century used to say: "Tell the Muslims something is in the Quran, and they will die for you." Malkam Khan was an Armenian who converted to Islam to use it for his political agenda. The cartoon row and the Quran in toilet episode, Danish cartoon and now Florida shows the world that he was right. Islamic manipulators can support any agenda of chaos with the Quran.

Remember the two Qur'anic verses in particular that condemn Muslims to live in religious, economic, intellectual, and civil poverty. One says: 004.089 "If they turn back from Islam, becoming renegades, seize them and kill them wherever you find them." The other commands: 005.101 "Believers! Do not ask questions about things which if made plain and declared to you, may vex you, causing you trouble." 005.102 "A people before you did ask such questions, and on that account they lost their faith and became disbelievers." It's true; the Qur'an is so obviously fraudulent, anyone who questions it must die.

Ali Siani an Ex-Muslim who is an Iranian
Author has this article posted at Faith Freedom dot Org.

You can't win a war without knowing your enemy. In order to win this war, we must know the psychology of Muslims. Once we know the mind, we know the weaknesses and the vulnerabilities.

The weakness of Muslims is Islam. They cling to it for their identity and pride.
They want you to respect Islam and with that feed their narcissistic craving. When you see millions of Muslims go berserk over a cartoon, you know that a very sensitive cord has been touched.

This knowledge is crucial to win this war. When in war, you attack your enemy in his weakest spot. That is why attacking the character of Muhammad and the credibility of the Quran is essential to our struggle. To win this war we must wean Muslims from Islam and to do that we must discredit it. Islam's grip on Muslims is not logical but psychological. We win this war psychologically. By telling the truth! Once you stop kowtowing to Mohammed's slave trade pedophile worshippers, the battle is won. Non-Muslims who pretend to be fighting terrorism are offended by these terms and think calling Muslims derogatory terms are unnecessary. Far from being unnecessary it is imperative. These are not insults but facts. These facts, once spread and echoed, will crush the Muslim's faith in Islam and will help Muslims cut their umbilical cord from it.

Muslims are not afraid of fighting. They are not afraid of killing or dying. They are afraid of ridicule. That is their weak spot. It is right on their weak spot that we must concentrate our attacks.

Only a fool would deny that we are in a war. Muslims have their jihad against humanity. Each side has its weakness. The weakness of non-Muslims, particularly the Westerners, is their guilt. Muslims abuse the non-Muslims in their countries and violate their human rights, but when they come to the West they demand, not just equal, but preferential treatment. Not only do they not abide by western rules, they seek to make westerners abide by theirs. Why? It's because the non-Muslims don't care, and because of that Muslims win. They win because of western indifference and inaction. The Westerners feel obliged to comply because they are bound by their own guilt. Muslims know each weakness in the host country's legal system and then take full advantage of that to strengthen their position.

The vulnerability of Muslims is shame. Rank and file, Muslims see their selfhood and pride in their belief. Criticizing Islam for Muslims is the most devastating experience possible. For all, who worship Muhammad, hearing him questioned and ridiculed is traumatic.

Paradoxically, this is also their salvation. The more Islam is criticized, the less sensitive Muslims become and gradually they stop clinging to it as their source of pride. Eventually Islam will become their source of shame. It's then that the exodus from Islam will begin. It can happen overnight.

Muslims are afraid of dialogue. When they talk about "dialogue between civilizations" they actually mean monologue. They want you to listen to their story, but they are not willing to listen to yours, much less to tolerate your probing questions. They demonstrate their intolerance for dialogue by avoiding situations where Islam can be examined. This is their weakness.

Due to the failure of the United States Senate to examine Islam Westerners cannot bring themselves to discriminate against Muslims. The best way to overcome this handicap is to take advantage of the weakness of Muslims and criticize their sick "one and only" founder.

Thomas Paine said "Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must undergo the fatigue of supporting it". Thomas Paine

Non-Muslims Keep Islam Alive

Muslims constantly quote personalities who have made positive comments about Islam. Muslims depend on these comments like fish in water. They find them, encourage them, compile and advertise them, because in the approval of others, they find the validation of their faith. Their self esteem depends on how others perceive them and what others say about them. This is key to understanding their idiosyncrasy and strategic plan of combat.

When this approval stops? Their entire self worth crumbles! They lose faith. A narcissist depends on compliments because in them he finds his narcissistic supplies. It is through the compliments of others that the narcissist finds validation.

To a certain extent we all are narcissists. We want to be noticed. We seek attention.

We want to matter. This craving is so strong that some even commit crime to elicit attention. Vandals destroy, so they can be noticed. Through vandalism they can see their handiwork and feel important. The same psychology is what motivates a serial arsonist or even a serial killer.

American psychiatrist James Gilligan, the author of Preventing Violence, argues that the reason most criminals commit crime is to get respect. He writes: "I used to think that people committed armed robberies in order to get money; and indeed, that is the superficial explanation that they would often prefer to give, to themselves and to us. But when I actually sat down and spoke at length with men who had repeatedly committed such crimes, I would start to hear comments like "I never got so much respect before in my life as I did when I pointed a gun at some dude's face."

The key to helping Muslims leave Islam is to deprive them of respect. For a narcissist, the most important thing is the image. Muslims depend on the image of Islam for their self esteem. Having lost their identity and being left with nothing but Islam, they feel respected when Islam is respected and insulted when Islam is insulted. As long as non-Muslims respect Islam, Muslims will continue clinging to it. They will abandon it once Islam is denounced for being the evil cult that it is.

Muslims are capable of completely losing their heads and becoming vicious murderers. Why? It is because Muslims have lost their selfhood and Islam has become their only identity. Islam gives them self worth, a false sense of pride and selfhood. Once Islam is criticized, they feel their vulnerability and are shamed. What can a Muslim do when their prophet is called a pedophile and they can't deny the fact. This causes intense shame and the Muslim way to deal with shame is to become violent. They are "possessed".

In order to help them overcome their savagery, Muslims must be "exorcized" from Islam. To do so, Islam must be discredited so it loses its appeal. Shame makes Muslims violent, but it eventually will set them free. Therefore the answer to their violence is not to respect their faith but to shame them more. Only intense shame can break their shell and set them free.

Narcissism is fed through narcissistic supplies. Recognition and respect are narcissistic supplies. Feeding narcissism does not help the narcissist, it rather makes them worse. They become bullies, more arrogant and more demanding. Narcissists cannot be helped through appeasement. In the words of Churchill, "An appeaser is one who feeds the crocodile hoping it will eat him last." The Germans and many European governments are trying to appease Muslims. They are not aware of the danger of Islam and the calamity that they are going to face in a very near future. Ignorance has a price to pay. The price of this ignorance can be civil war and blood of both Muslims and non-Muslims.

Our responsibility is to awaken the non-Muslims and warn them of the danger of Islam. The danger comes from Islam and not the Middle Eastern people. Unlike Muslims, who discriminate, violate and abuse the human rights of non-Muslims, the Non-Muslims have difficulty with discrimination. However, they must understand that Islam is just a belief and beliefs do not have rights. Humans have rights, beliefs don't.

As events show, Muslims can become feral dogs if their prophet is criticized. Once Islam is discredited and Muslims are set free. Their old source of pride becomes a source of shame, they will no longer cling to it but rather will be embarrassed of it and would want to dissociate themselves from it.

The Western culture, is guilt based. The Eastern culture is shame based. For Easterners, everything is about image and how others see it.

The opposite of guilt is innocence. If your ethos is guilt based, you have an inner police that stops you from doing wrong because doing wrong makes you feel guilty.

If your ethos is shame based, all you care about is to preserve your image. The opposite of shame is honor. You can do wrong but as long as no one sees it, your image is not tarnished and you can still be seen as an honorable person. In a shame based culture, wrong and right have no meaning. It is all about shame and honor. If the stain of shame is removed, even if it means the murder of your own daughter, honor is restored. These are two very different worldviews. Unless the world understands them the world will not be able to make sense of Muslims and their shame based mind set.

Shame based cultures are primitive. All Eastern cultures are shame based even when they are not Islamic. For example, Persian culture is shame based. Proverbs like "I keep my cheeks rosy with slaps," are telltales of a shame based culture, where image is more important than facts. This proverb says that I may be starving but my pride does not allow me to let anyone know it so I slap myself to keep my cheek rosy. Because poverty is the source of shame as long as I hide my poverty, I have preserved my honor.

Islam is a fear based philosophy that has taken root in a shame based environment. This is a very dangerous combination. When you combine fear and shame moral codes, you give birth to the most insidious ethos imaginable. That is Islam. Islam is an illogical doctrine that is based on fear and is defended through honor. This makes Islam more dangerous than Nazism. Muslims are not concerned about the irrationality of Islam or about good or evil. They are concerned about losing face and upholding the image of Islam.

Here is where Violence Wins

Brute force is stronger than compromise. If you and I confront each other and I use violence against you while you try to reason with me, I will win and you will lose. The reason Muslims have won since the time of Muhammad is because the non-Muslims were reluctant to resort to violence while Muslims were always ready to do so. The reason we live in freedom today is because the Europeans responded to Muslim barbarity with equal savagery. If not for the crusaders, we probably would not be free today.

After converting to Islam, Muslims turn against their own people and do not shy away killing their own loved ones.

This has been the secret of the success of Islam since its inception. Ordinary people are not militant. They subscribe to the philosophy of live and let live. This is a commendable trait in a civilized world. However, where the law of juggle applies, the most ferocious and the most cunning beast is always the winner. A pack of hyenas can raid a large herd of wildebeests or gazelles; kill as many of them as they want and they are always victorious. The hyenas and other carnivores always win, because herbivores are not violent. Brute force wins. Good and evil are human concepts. In nature force is what matters. This is a principle. Because Muslims are militant, and the rest of mankind is not; because they are violent and the others are not, Muslims always win.

Tolerance of intolerance encourages it. Islam must be stopped. There are two ways to do that. One is by weaning Muslims from Islam and the other is by responding to their violence with greater violence. In the humble opinion of this writer the first option is sanity while the second is war. Needless to say that the option of inaction is insanity and suicidal.

If the path of sanity is chosen, the only way to help Muslims leave Islam is to discredit it. This means openly criticizing Islam. Why should Islam be spared from criticism? If there is any truth to Islam, let its apologists defend it. If it cannot be defended logically then it is a lie. Why should anyone bow to a lie when it is responsible for countless deaths and so much bloodshed?

The best people who can criticize Islam and discredit it are people who know Islam inside out and it is up to [Ali Siani Iranian Author of Faith Freedom dot Org] to speak out. The ex-Muslim can do what others can't. Our enemies are militant, determined and proactive. Ex-Muslims must also become determined and proactive.

Few people can expect to support themselves with a PAT ON THE BACK!
